Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments see pages 18-24 of Remarks, filed 06/04/2010, with respect to art rejection applied to claims 1-14, 16, 18-22 and 24-34 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The art rejection as applied to claims 1-14, 16, 18-22 and 24-34 has been withdrawn.

Applicants have made amendment as related to the "new matter" rejection and the "101" rejection. Applicants also disclose that it would have been well within the realm of someone having ordinary skill in the mobile devices at the time of the invention to provide a mobile device with non-transitory computer-readable medium.

Applicants amendment resolve the issue related to the "101 rejection." However, as related to "new matter" rejection, examiner respectfully disagrees.

Examiner does agree, and as known in the art, that a mobile does comprise of RAM. However, the "new matter" issue involves not only the "computer readable storage" language but also the action that is being performed within such a medium. Therefore, the new matter rejection is maintained while the "101 rejection" is removed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 24-30, 34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

On 10/06/2006, new claims 24-30 were presented with subject matter, i.e., computer-readable storage, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey that the inventor had possession of the claimed invention. Such disclosure constitutes new matter.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-14, 16, 18-22 and 31-33 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In view of applicants' arguments received on 06/04/2010 (pages 18-24 of Remarks), the above claims are found to be allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
